IN RE COMMONWEALTH OF PR
PROMESA Title 111 [sic]
NO. 17 BK 3283-LTS

Dear sirs:

In my just claim, filed as a government employee and, due to Puerto Rico being in bankruptcy and under a Financial Oversight and Management Board, I reiterate that I do not waive the acquired rights to a pension of 75% to be received when I reach 55 years of age and 30 years of service. As a Court Administration employee since January 1989, I signed my employment contract under Act 447 and since 2013, being under Act 3, my employment contract, whereby I took my oath of office in 1989, was violated, forcing me to work a further seven years or until reaching 61 years of age and with a meager pension of 38%.

Under Act 447, I would already have retired in 2020 and would be receiving my pension of 75%. I already have 32 years of service and am 55 years of age.

For these reasons, I do not waive my acquired rights and I demand that my employment contract be honored under Act 447 and that I be paid, in full, my life annuity of 75%.

The Financial Oversight and Management Board must clear the way for Act 80 and permit employees protected under Act 447 to be able to retire, which would at least bring us a little justice, given that Act 80 offers the payment of at least 50% and a medical plan until 62 years of age; in view of which, many employees would accept to be subject to that offered under Act 80.

Yours sincerely,
